

Cooperatives and DIVERSE COMMUNITIES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Registration $25
Students $5
9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Co-ops have the potential to create jobs, empower individuals and strengthen communities. This business model can provide a path toward more self-sufficiency and more significant economic potential. Learn how cooperatives can address community issues like housing, food access and learning financial management skills.

Cooperatives and Diverse Communities

Friday, October 26, 2018

225 S. East Street ■ Indianapolis, IN

A cooperative is formed when individuals organize together around a common economic, social or cultural goal. Co-operatives come in all shapes and sizes and all sectors of the economy - agriculture, food distribution and retailing, childcare, credit unions, purchasing, worker-owned, housing, healthcare, energy and telecommunications.

They can generate income for their members and also offer a range of benefits. There are over 1 billion members of co-operatives worldwide in over 100 countries. Cooperatives promote the fullest possible participation in the economic and social development of all people.

Don't miss this opportunity. Register today at bit.ly/coopdiversityconf

